The Texas Education Agency has officially recognized this group as the Lower Rio Grande P-16 ECHS Planning Consortium. The consortium's planning process is designed to blend best practices from Early College High Schools, TSTEM initiatives, and Tech Prep programs of study with the intent of maximizing benefits for students. Leaders from Tech Prep of the Rio Grande Valley, Inc. (managing partner of the Lower Rio Grande P-16 Council) and the Texas High School Project (leaders of Early College High Schools and Texas Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics initiatives) are working closely together in leading the planning consortium's work.
